

“Japanese for nursing Care” Learning support・The get-gathering

Reiwa 6th

The reception at 13:00

July 22 (Mon) 13:30~17:00

Access

“Windsor”, 3F at OKURA CHIBA HOTEL
(1-13-3 Chuo-ko. Chuo-ku, Chiba)

We will hold the seminar where foreign students aiming to work in the nursing care, current nursing care workers, the staffs of facilities and schools that accept foreigners can have fun and expand their circle of communication. We will introduce recreational experiences and tips on how to learn and teach Japanese.

【Free】
Quota:30

Boccia Lecturer : Chiba boccia Association

Everyone will experience boccia, which is an official Paralympic sport. Boccia is the sport that even beginners can enjoy due to its gentle rules, so it is also recommended as a recreation for facilities for the elderly.

Learning Japanese Lecturer : Inage Pecorino

We will explain Japanese that is difficult for foreigners to understand, such as technical terms and spoken language used in the nursing field that cannot be learned through everyday communication. By finding out where you have trouble, or where you are likely to have trouble, you will learn how to prepare and efficient study methods for learning "Japanese for nursing care."
