※This get-gathering is co-hosted by Japan International Corporation of Welfare Services as part of a project commissioned by the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare to support the acceptance and retention of foreign careworkers in Japan in fiscal year Reiwa 6.

1 Communication workshop

Lecturer JICWELS

In order to help participants become more comfortable with each other, we will hold the workshop that involves physical activity, using Japanese and playing simple word games.

2 Smooth communication in the field of nursing care

Lecturer JICWELS

In order to make it easier for foreign careworkers to work in the field, we will explain the language to facilitate smooth communication between staff, points to keep in mind, and the importance of communication such as Hou, Ren, Sou (reporting, contacting, and consulting) among staff.

3 <<Interaction・Conversation>> among participants

We will have time for everyone to chat casually about their work at the facility and their daily lives.

* Snacks and drinks will be provided.

4 Basic labour knowledge course

Lecturer I&P International Social Insurance and Labor Consultant Corporation

When working at the care facility, there are many "rules" between the facility and the staff. We will explain in an easy-to-understand manner the basic labor-related knowledge that you should know such as wages, holidays, and procedures for social insurance, which can be worrying because you don't understand them.
